HBO Films presents this searing look at the ill-fated campaign, pulling back the curtain on the McCain team and their clash over politics and principles. Julianne Moore, Woody Harrelson and Ed Harris star. Directed by Jay Roach; written by Danny Strong, based on the book by Mark Halperin and John Heilemann. (AC,AL) TVMA/L-1:58. From Ricky Gervais and Stephen Merchant (Extras, The Office) comes this mockumentary comedy series about actor Warwick Davis' life as he tries to hustle and connive his way back into the spotlight. Portraying a conceited, self-aggrandizing version of himself, Davis desperately tries to revive his career as Britain's go-to little person, running a talent agency for little people (though he takes the best roles for himself). He also acts as the vice chairman of a society for small people (he'd rather be chairman), and seeks advice from old pals Gervais and Merchant in hopes their A-list connections can raise his profile.
